Department of English and American Studies
Celebrating 100 Years of English Teaching in Brno
Saturday 20 November 2021

Morning 10.30 am - 12.00 pm
https://cesnet.zoom.us/j/98745582662

Symposium to mark the centennial of the birth of Prof. Jan Firbas
The symposium will contain presentations by Libuše Dušková, Eva Hajičová, Eva Golková, Jana Chamonikolasová, Martin Adam, Irena Headlandová Kalischová, and Renata Pípalová

Afternoon 2.00 - 3.30 pm
https://cesnet.zoom.us/j/99423747296

Virtual "Reunion" (Tomáš Pospišil, moderator)

- Opening

- Reflections on the "spirit" of the English Department and English in Brno
  — Don Sparling

- Book launch
  ○ Volumes 4 and 5 of the Collected Works of Jan Firbas
    — Jana Chamonikolasová

- Upcoming books
  ○ English or Czenglish: Avoiding Czechisms in English - a completely revised new edition
    — Simona Kalová, Chris Rance, Don Sparling
  ○ Outside In: A Personal History of the Brno Department of English - a new book based on Don Sparling's research and personal reminiscences

- An update on Gypsywood
  — Jeff Smith and Tomáš Kačer

- "Professor Chudoba's tree" - something interesting in the works
  — Nora Hodečková

- New website on the history of the English Department
  — Jiří Rambousek

- "Friends of the English Department" - a surprise!
  — Don Sparling

The programme can also be accessed at https://english.phil.muni.cz/100.